

The School of St Jude

Fighting poverty through education

Giving

1,800

students free, quality education

100's

of graduates higher education

30,000+

Tanzanians quality teaching each year.

Learn more about the facts behind the numbers

About Tanzania >>>>

80%

 of the population live on less than AU$4.60 a day.

Over 45 million Tanzanians are living in poverty.

74%

 are not in secondary school.

An adult averages 5.8 years of schooling.

97%

do not access higher education.

Our students >>>>

60%

 of students are female.

Top 0.3%

 Standard 7's* national ranking.

*Last year of primary school

1st Nationwide

 Form 6's* results in Advanced Mathematics

*Last year of secondary school

Our school >>>>

1,800

 students in primary and secondary school.

1:1

 ratio of text books to students.

Five times better than the average for maths text books in government primary schools.

3/4s

 of students in safe and supportive boarding.

Operating for 18 years

1000+

visitors each year.

Our graduates >>>>

24

 tertiary scholars graduated university through the Beyond St Jude's [BSJ] program in 2019.

72%

 of BSI scholars studying higher education courses linked to STEM [Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics].

Our governance >>>>

AU$0.98

of every dollar donated is made available to support the school.

Accounts audited nationally and internationally.

Advisory boards made up of staff, parents and local community representatives involved in decision making.

The numbers are adding up!

With your help, St Jude's can continue to make a difference!

Local empowerment >>>>

270+ local staff, including academic and business leaders. All of our teachers are Tanzanian.

48 elected parents representing areas students are from, keeping parents informed and strengthening the relationship between the school and the community.

Our impact >>>>

80% of graduates' families overcome extreme poverty.

Based on means assessment of family circumstances of Form 6 students.

49 government schools have benefitted from Community Service Year Interns teaching core subjects.

60,000+ children taught by interns in local government schools since 2015.

AU$7million injected into the Tanzanian economy each year.

www.schoolofstjude.org